Description of Duties by Position

The Iowa School for the Deaf prepares deaf or hard-of-hearing students from preschool through age 21 for life as literate citizens who contribute to society. Some services offered at ISD are:

Teacher of the Deaf - academic instruction with a focus on language skills; incorporating expanded Core Curriculum; accommodations and modifications to meet individual needs

Speech and Language Pathologists - diagnostic evaluation, group and individual speech/language therapy which may include training in speech awareness, articulation, voice language, speech-reading (lip-reading), and pronunciation; Speech therapy focuses on individual student need.

Educational Interpreters - interpreting services (sign to voice and voice to sign) for mainstream classes (at Lewis Central Public Schools); presentations; guest speakers; field trips; events; meetings; etc.

Residential Staff - Supervise students during non-academic hours; provide enrichment activities as well as tutoring with homework and independent living skills

Other - Staff provide extra-curricular activities such as clubs and sports; transportation services; food service; and nursing care.
